

THE TOWNS AROUND.

BARNET.

Miss Ida Jones of Brooklyn is visiting at John Wallace's.

Miss Emma Engleman of Chicago is visiting at the parsonage.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Stanley from Brooklyn are at Mr. Lyman Stanley's. Mr. and Mrs. Luce were suddenly recalled to their home in Illinois by the death of a grandchild.

The Misses Goodwillie and their cousin, Miss Black from New York, are stopping at W. S. Brock's.

John M. Randall of East Barnet has secured a pension of $6 a month and arrears of $147 through May's agency at St. Johnsbury.

Mrs. Wetherell of Lyman, who has been visiting in our village, and the misfortune to break her hip getting from a carriage in Monroe recently.

The Barnet Centre Ladies society will hold a social at Mr. A. P. McLaren's Wednesday evening, August 19, for the sale of the quilt. All are cordially invited.

Rev. Joseph Boardman returned from Tacoma, Wash., on Saturday after an absence of twelve weeks. Morning services were resumed at church last Sunday.

Nearly all the young folks of village are spending the week at Harvey's Pond. Mrs. Henry Flanders of Newport, N. H., and her friend Miss McPhee of Pawtucket, R. I., are with them.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Barry of Boston, violinists and mezzo soprano singer, will give a concert in the town hall here, Thursday evening August 20th, assisted by local talent. The proceeds are for the benefit of the Ladies' society.

Claude Gillilan has sold out to H. E. Wilson and goes to take charge of the new store of Hollander, Bradshaw & Folsom at Millis, Mass. The Boston firm have secured a popular and experienced man, for one so young and we hate to lose Claude.

WEST BARNET.

On next Sabbath morning Rev. Mr. Campbell will preach at the Reformed Presbyterian church, West Barnet, on the subject—"God supplying all our need."

The young people's society of Christian Endeavor will meet in the church at 7 p. m. These meetings are very interesting. On Wednesday evening, Aug. 19th at 7.30, George W. Leitch, who has spent three years in Ceylon, India, will deliver an illustrated address on "Life and mission work in India." He has 100 photographs taken in that country and beautifully hand painted, representing the daily lives of the people, beautiful natural scenery, heathen temples, and scenes of mission work, showing the wonders of India, and furnishing striking object-lesson on the miracle of missions.

On Tuesday, August 25th a basket picnic will be held at West Barnet Lake Grove. The barn has been secured in case of rain. A conference will be held at 11 a. m. and 2 p. m. and addresses by clergymen and others on Missions, Young Peoples' society of Christian Endeavor, temperance work, and Sabbath school work.

EAST BURKE.

Officers Installed. Burke Mt. Lodge, I. O. G. T., installed the following officers last Friday night: C. T. Myron Gilson; V. T. Carrie Jenkins; S. Lizzie Brown; A. S. Bert Humphrey; T. S. O. D. Young; Tr. Royal Eggleston; M. Robbie Godding; C. Adie Godding; D. M. Celia Stafford; P. C. T. N. L. Parker; S. J. T. Mrs. Stafford; L. D. Heman Burpee; Delegate to grand lodge, Mrs. W. B. Godding; alternate, J. P. Stafford.

Members of Burke Mt. Lodge, I. O. G. T., went to Victory Tuesday evening to assist in organizing a new lodge.

Messrs. Frasier and Fairbanks have dissolved partnership, the latter retiring.

The town has greatly improved the appearance of the village cemetery by cutting down trees and building a new fence.

Alvah Harvey and wife have returned to St. Johnsbury.

A large number from here went to Newport and down the lake last Thursday. The day was fine and all enjoyed it. Thanks are due to those who went to look after the children, especially A. C. Farmer.

Mrs. H. P. Cushing is stopping at Walter Coulter's.

WEST BURKE.

James Cook has sold his place to Silas Leach for $375.

D. Davis has been quite sick for a week or so, but is now better.

Engene Berry has moved his family to Newport where his work is.

Rev. G. M. Curl of St. Johnsbury will deliver a free lecture at the Methodist church Friday evening.

Dr. H. J. Goodell, the optician, died on Monday. Mr. Goodell was 38 years old and left a wife. He was a nephew of Mrs. H. E. Woodruff of St. Johnsbury Center, and a brother of Mrs. Alonzo Packard of St. Johnsbury. He learned the tin-smith's trade at H. E. & D. Q. Woodruff's where he was located for five years. Ill health compelled him to abandon this trade and after travelling extensively in California and Florida he finally settled at this village and became an optician. His funeral was held Wednesday and was attended by the Odd Fellows of St. Johnsbury and this place. Rev. E. A. Hoyt of the former town officiated.

DANVILLE.

Oscar Cloby is repairing his buildings.

Will and Sam Mattocks are in town for their vacation.

Herbert Ripley is spending his vacation at Thurber's.

Ellsworth Woodward, who has been quite sick, is recovering.

William Twitchell is stopping with his sister, Mrs. Sturtevant.

L. G. Burnham and wife, of Burlington are stopping in town a few days and visiting friends.

Miss Knight and Miss Buck, from Johnson, and Miss Harvey, of Peacham, visited Miss Kate Currier last Thursday.

A party of eight Providence, R. I. people, who had been stopping some time at the Elm House, returned Wednesday.

F. A. and S. O. Morse, who are noted for their good horses, have just matched up a fine pair of "dun" colts five and six years old, of good size and fine action.

The Danville "Clippers" played the Hardwick "Bunglers" last Saturday at Hardwick. Score 27 to 11 in favor of the Clippers. They will play the Cabot's next Saturday at this place and an interesting game is expected.

Rev. William H. Stuart has received a most cordial call to the East Jaffrey, N. H., Congregational church and he has decided to accept it. His work at this place will close August 16th and his work there will begin September 1. In the meantime he will rest.

WEST DANVILLE.

Mrs. Hannah Bean is visiting friends in Newark.

Mrs. Horace White of Boston is visiting her father, John Hott.

Rev. Mr. Morse of Peacham preached here for his father on Sunday.

John L. Frye has purchased the Hutchinson and the John Hott farms.

A new organ has been purchased for the Sunday services in the school house.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee have finished work for George W. Farrington and returned to Newark.

E. N. Dunbar is making extensive repairs on his grist mill. A new foundation is one of the improvements.

Mr. and Mrs. Nimms of Montague, Mass., are visiting at her father's, G. W. Farrington's. They are accompanied by five children.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Greenwood of Haverhill, Mass., are visiting at George Merrill's. Mrs. Greenwood was formerly Miss Merrill.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Robinson and Charles A. Brickett, all of Lowell, Mass., are visiting in town, the latter at his mother's, Mrs. Emily Brickett.

The polishing works are being pushed on rapidly toward completion. The dam is finished; the water wheels are ready to set, and the frame to the building is up.

EAST HARDWICK.

Miss A. E. Batchelder from Boston, a former teacher of this village, is spending a part of her vacation with her aunt, Mrs. R. L. French, and other relatives and friends in this vicinity.

J. A. Goodrich returned Tuesday from Chautauqua where he has been attending the national gathering of the Beta Theta Pi fraternity, one of the largest college fraternities in the United States. Mr. Goodrich attended as a delegate from the chapter at Amherst college.

LYNDON CENTRE.

Parties from Lisbon Fall, Me., are visiting at Rev. John Nason's.

John Jewel has moved from the Sherburne to the Dresser house.

Blanche Shackford of West Concord is visiting at D. O. Currier's.

Two teachers from New York city are boarding at Highland cottage.

Harland J. Gray has been unable to work for some time on account of illness.

Roswell Leach has not sold his house as was reported last week. One of the parties backed out.

Mrs. E. H. Hinds has returned from North Hyde Park where she has been visiting for several weeks.

Willie Parker is very dangerously sick from the effects of the kick which he received some time ago. His recovery is doubtful.

LYNDONVILLE.

Blood, the grocer, and Jo Thomas have been at the Newport horse fair trying to make money.

About 150 went on the excursion to Lake Memphremagog last Thursday. A good time is reported.

The Lyndonville's defeated the St. Johnsbury Centre's in a game of ball last Friday by a score of 22 to 4.

Stearns Manufacturing company have bought out Chandler Bullock's grain business, possession to be taken Sept. 1.

H. C. Whitney has been in New London, N. H., a few days past and will spend the rest of his vacation at his home in Glover.

About 25 members from Burke Mt., Riverside and Harmony lodges went to Gallop's Mills Tuesday evening and assisted Grand Counselor Aldrich in the institution of a lodge there. The lodge starts off with 19 members.

MCINDOES FALLS.

Church Repairs Completed.

Work on the church was completed last week and appropriate services were held in the church Sunday. After the sermon by our pastor, Rev. W. M. Gay, a short address was delivered by Rev. Dr. J. M. Dickson of Providence, R. I., at the close of which address $200 was easily raised. This will clear up the debt and fix up the grounds in good style. In all about $700 has been expended on the repairs under the very efficient management of W. H. Gilchrist. Rev. Dr. Dickson will preach next Sunday.

Mrs. Nettie Holmes has been visiting old friends.

Mrs. E. C. Gilchrist returned from Newbury this week.

Mrs. Lloyd Kimball is visiting her parent at Bath, N. H.

Miss Hattie Van Dyke arrived this week to spend the summer with her father.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene McClary and family of Malou, N. Y., are visiting at Mr. Ford's at the present time.

Bert Drew who has been clerking for A. B. Perry in his store has gone to his home in Stowe. John Pollard will fill Mr. Drew's place.

The Misses Arlene and Jennie Bell of Hardwick and Dr. Drew and wife of Washington, D. C., spent the Sabbath at Mrs. A. B. Perry's.

The communion supper by the Y. P. S. C. E. was a great success and proved a good way to make money. About $30 was taken, which will be applied to the rope carpet and an umbrella stand for the vestibule.

MORRISVILLE.

Maj. D. J. Safford arrived Tuesday from Detroit, where he went to attend the national encampment of the G. A. R.

Mrs. Montgomery, a missionary from Turkey and a former resident of this place, gave a very interesting address in the Congregational church Sunday evening.

Miss Nettie Brackett has gone to take a position in the Children's Home at Burlington. Miss Lilla Patton has taken Miss Brackett's former place in Mrs. Wilder's store.

We hear that the new Savings bank is soon to be placed in a fine fire-proof building, just below the Morrisville house. We hope it will also contain rooms for the library, the room now in use being much too small.

Lake Elmore is becoming a favorite summer resort, especially for camping parties. Camp Idlewild was occupied for a week by a company from Hyde Park. Another party from this place, with Mrs. P. B. Fisk as chaperone, occupies Camp Bacon at present.

MONROE, N. H.

Most of the farmers have finished haying, having secured an average crop of good quality. Some fields of barley have been harvested. Other crops are looking fine.

The Epworth League meets on Friday evening of this week with Mary Paddleford. The North Monroe Ladies' society meets on Thursday afternoon and evening with Mrs. J. P. Moore.

The annual field meeting of the Northern New Hampshire Pomona Grange will be held with the Monroe Grange in the North Monroe church Friday, Aug. 21, at 2 o'clock. Addresses will be made by Hon. Alpha Messer, master of the Vermont state Grange, State Master McDaniel and others. All farmers with their families are invited to be present.

RYEGATE.

Wilson Beattie of Boston is in town this week.

Berton Hatt had one finger broken while holding a drill for a green boy to strike.

Mrs. J. R. Miller of Boston, daughter of M. R. Gray, is spending a few days in town.

George Merritt of Topsham cut the heel-cord of one foot off in the hay field while fighting wasps.

Mrs. Merrill of Cambridge, Mass., is visiting her brother, W. J. Symes, and sister, Mrs. S. R. Whitehill.

Early Monday morning a burglar was suddenly frightened from the window of Mrs. M. S. Beattie's house, but no clue to his identity has been obtained, our chief of police being absent.

A successful entertainment was given at the United Presbyterian Church last Tuesday evening. A choice musical program was rendered, opening by music by orchestra, followed by a song, "When the tide comes in." Next came a reading entitled "The college oil cans." These were followed by a song "The old street lamp;" a reading entitled "The inventor's wife;" music by orchestra; a waltz song; reading "The singing regiment;" music by quartet, "The radiant morn has passed away."

PASSUMPSIC.

Rev. J. T. Buzzell is to spend his two weeks' vacation at Enosburg.

George Felch of Hyde Park, Mass., made his father, G. W. Felch, a visit last week.

Mrs. Carrie Getchell is on a visit to her father and mother at North Haverhill, N. H.

A rare treat was given those that heard the three sermons that Rev. F. P. Graves preached here last Sabbath.

The Sabbath school picnic held at Harvey's Pond last Thursday was a success, 150 enjoying themselves there.

Rev. H. A. Buzzell of Elkhorn, Wis., and J. M. Buzzell of Washington, D. C., made their brother, J. T. Buzzell, a visit this week.

PEACHAM.

The young folks are camping at Martin's Pond.

Prof. Nelson Whitehead and John

H. Varnum of the Sunset Hill House, N. H., were in town over Sunday.

Frank Palmer and wife, Martin Hidden and wife, and Miss Laura Varnum are camping at Joe's pond in Danville.

Rev. J. K. Williams returned from his trip to Europe on Tuesday. Mrs. Williams has also returned from a visit to the west part of the state.

SOUTH RYEGATE.

Rev. A. M. Milligan is at A. Buchanan's.

Mrs. Jarley's wax works netted $25 for the parsonage fund.

Rev. J. J. Hall, pastor elect of the new church, and family are expected this week.

Thomas Bailey, once a resident of Jefferson Hill, now of Springfield, Mo., is visiting friends here.

Mrs. M. B. Hall and family are at their old home. Mrs. Hall was with Mrs. Thomas Nelson in her last sickness.

Rev. Mr. Steele, (pastor of the church in New York of which Rev. William Wylie was once pastor,) is at Mr. McDonald's. His sister is with him. They are cousins of Rev. J. H. Kendall.

At the communion at the old church on August 2, seven were added to the list of members. This church has given a call to Mr. Jackson, the young man who preached here for several weeks early in the summer. They are to repair the horse sheds and every one will be glad to see it done.

The Blue Mountain Granite company are full of business. They are filling an order for Uncle Sam for 1907 feet of straight curbing and 93 feet of circular besides pier posts capstones etc., the whole job amounting to about 12 carloads. This is the first government contract for granite from this town.

At a recent meeting of the directors, officers were chosen for the coming fair. A large amount of work is now being done on the ground, the road machine being used for the track building. The people in this vicinity are under obligations to the CALEDONIAN for the very full premium list which recently appeared in its columns. T. A. Meader is recording secretary.

ST. JOHNSBURY EAST.

Trees Blown Down.

The shower last evening was quite severe in this vicinity with a strong wind. A shade tree in Mr. Babcock's yard was blown down. A young man was returning from St. Johnsbury after the concert and was coming through the woods known as "cedar swamp" when a flash of lightning revealed to him a tree blown directly across the road. He was obliged to turn around and go back to Mark's bridge and go over the hill to reach home. He procured a lantern and an axe and returned and removed the obstruction just in time to prevent a team going to St. Johnsbury from running into it.

Miss Evelyn Bowen is home from Ryegate.

Mrs. Wild and son of Springfield, Mass., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. McCurdy.

The Ladies Aid society will give an "observation party" in the vestry Thursday evening. Ice cream and cake will be served.

Irving Locke has gone to Island Pond and Derby Line to inspect the telephone instruments in that vicinity for Manager Bingham.

Master Willie Carlton of Island Pond is spending a few weeks with his uncle, George E. Goodall, and grandmother, Mrs. Carlton.

Miss Harvey, missionary from India, and Miss Flora Harvey, teacher in the Union school at St. Johnsbury are spending a few days with their sister, Mrs. Phelps.

Mrs. Rosetta Stark of Grinnell, Ia., and her daughter, Mrs. Chester Phillips of Glover, formerly of this place, have been visiting their old home now owned by Mrs. Stark's brother, Ezra Gates.

Mr. Frank Bill of Cambridgeport, Mass., made his old time friends and patrons a flying call last week. Mr. Bill was formerly in business here with Mr. Cutting. He with his daughter was on his way to visit relations in Albany.

Rev. Mr. Hertel is about to publish a paper to be issued monthly. It is to be devoted to the interest of the Congregational society, and will advocate sound doctrine and good morals. The first number will be out this week. Mr. Hertel editor, F. C. Harrington publisher.

ST. JOHNSBURY CENTRE.

Goss Family Reunion.

A very pleasant family reunion occurred Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Levi Goss and son, U. G. Goss. Besides being a reunion it celebrated the centennial of the arrival of the first Goss settlers in the town of Waterford. About 60 relatives and a few friends were present, eight of whom were children of Mrs. Levi Goss. One son was away. The average age of those present was 39 years, and with a single exception, all enjoy good health. Ten grandchildren were present and four states were represented. Fourteen were from Massachusetts, among whom were Curtis C. Goss of Boston; S. P. Stickney and wife of Rosindale; F. M. Goss and wife of Waltham; H. H. Goss, supt. of the Chase Turbine Co., Orange. E. Goss, supt. of the Olcott Falls Manufacturing Co. and Mrs. Richard Ball of Virden, Ill., were also present. Dinner was served under a large tent on the lawn in front of the new house. The taking of a group picture was the last on the program and it was a fitting close to the reunion. All went home feeling that a more pleasant time had never been spent, and each one wishing Mrs. Goss many more pleasant years. It was an occasion not soon to be forgotten.

Byron Wright and wife Miss Luvia Wright are at Newport this week visiting friends.

Edward Flint has bought the John W. Sherry place next south of the old hotel for $600, and has moved in.

Mrs. E. H. Stone, who had a large ovarian tumor removed last Monday, is doing as nicely as could be expected.

Henry Page has bought the old Capt. Wright place of Miss Nettie Wheeler, for $500, and takes possession soon.

The parties who have been taking goods from Mr. Stiles' store have been discovered, and some of the goods returned and the rest settled for without making any arrests.

The Ladies' Aid society held their annual meeting with Mrs. Abel Shory and elected these officers: Pres., Mrs. Charles Cobb; vice-presidents, Mrs. Butler, Mrs. Whitney; sec'y., Mrs. Dana; treas., Mrs. Whitney; supt. juvenile dept., Mrs. Rodliff.

SHEFFIELD.

Most of the hay is harvested and a good crop is reported.

Misses Lottie and Lou Folsom are visiting at N. L. Folsom's.

Amasa Chase and wife have gone to North Troy and Canada visiting.

Robert Gray fell in his barn recently and was quite badly hurt by striking upon an ox yoke.

W. L. Pearl was in town Tuesday erecting a monument for his father, mother and sister. It is very nice work.

The St. Johnsbury Centre boys played with the Sheffield's Saturday, 9 to 12 in favor of Sheffield's. Next Saturday they play with the East Burke nine.

SOUTH WALDEN.

Mrs. S. G. Lane and son visited in Wolcott last week.

Several young people went for a ride on Saturday to Woodbury in quest of water lilies.

G. W. Patch took a three days' trip through New Hampshire last week, visiting Lisbon and Littleton.

There will be a promenade at Good-enough's hall on Thursday evening. Goslant and Rock are to furnish music.

Mrs. C. A. Stevens started last week on a journey to Snohomish, Washington, where her son, William, resides.

Miss Florence Thurston and brother went to Bloomfield last week on a visit to their father's. He returned on Saturday, she remaining longer.

Among visitors late in town, some of whom are still here, we mention, M. H. Eddy and wife with friends from St. Johnsbury, Miss Lucetta Perkins, of Manchester, N. H., J. Webster and wife, of Massachusetts, and Mabel Fogg, of Sutton.

LOCAL NOTICES.

Ramsey & Potts' customers insist on their keeping Lamoille crackers. Why? Because they are second to none.

TRIUMPH OVER DISEASE. Dr. Gage's Great Practice and Marvelous Success.

Among Dr. Gage's many triumphs over disease is his great discovery, by which he is enabled to guarantee a cure in every case of Hemorrhoidal Tumors or charge nothing. If afflicted with any disease you can consult Dr. Gage free of charge. Judge B. E. Badger of Concord, N. H., says: "I have suffered 30 years with Bleeding and Protruding Piles and Dr. Gage has entirely cured me by one painless application. I was not inconvenienced—held court every day while being cured—was well in 3 weeks."

Daniel Quimby of East St. Johnsbury, member of family cured of a terrible case of bleeding and protruding piles.

Geo. Gile of Littleton, also cured of a bad case and other troubles.

C. M. Badger of Barton has suffered years with piles cured by one painless application.

Wm. J. Berry, Lyndonville, cured of an injury to spine which physicians had tried 3 years in vain to help.

H. A. Hall, Barnet, cured of lung disease, etc.

A. T. Gay, Groton, Vt., cured of lung disease and hemorrhage.

Mrs. W. E. Russ, White River Junction, Vt., given up with ovarian tumor large as a person's head, female difficulties, heart disease and dropsy. Dr. Gage cured her and he did not see her.

Mrs. Orrin Webber, Manchester, N. H., on crutches fourteen years with terrible ulcers on limbs, cured.

Mrs. Charles Bridgeman, Suncook, N. H., had ulcerative catarrh so badly that it had eaten a hole through roof of mouth and destroyed her palate; general health feeble; cured eight years ago and is still well and strong.

Isaac Buttrick, Londonderry, N. H.; son cured of deafness and catarrh; wife cured of scrofulous lumps on neck.

Dr. Levi B. Dodge, Waterford, Vt., very low with kidney disease, frightful bleeding, etc., cured and Dr. Gage did not see him.

All day yesterday and for several days past there might have been observed a surging crowd about the doors of C. D. Bagley's Pharmacy.

The people were after a drink of the beverage which has already become so popular in our city.

To the poor human who is scorching and broiling under the blazing summer sun or suffocating within the factory, shop or office, a cool drink of this refreshing liquid is an absolute necessity. No danger of sun-stroke when fortified thus.

We refer to Oxien, and Charlie is drawing lots of it from its fountain and selling it by the bottle as well. Take a bottle home for the tired wife and keep a supply in the ice-chest.

Canada's Great Eastern

EXHIBITION

And Dominion Dairy Show

WILL BE HELD AT